

PRESS RELEASETraffic Policeman apprehends imposters

On 01.01.14, at about 12:30 p.m. a PCR call was received that two traffic policemen are illegally checking commercial vehicles at Shakarpur chungli underpass on the road from Askhardham temple towards Geeta Colony. Constable Sohanvir No.3902/T, ignorant of the call, while passing from the spot noticed two men in Traffic Police uniform stopping commercial vehicles. On seeing Constable Sohanvir, the duo, later on identified as 1) Ramesh Chand, 35 yrs., r/o I-12, Gharwali Mohalla, Laxmi Nagar, Delhi and 2) Raj Kumar, 42 yrs., r/o I-53B, Gharwali Mohalla, Laxmi Nagar, Delhi, tried to run away but were apprehended by Ct. Sohanvir with the help of the complainant. They were wearing blue jackets, blue trousers and black shoes to impose as Traffic Police staff. The PCR call was subsequently received by Gandhi Nagar circle staff as well as Laxmi Nagar T-Point staff. They immediately reached the spot. The complainant, Shri Suresh r/o Trilok Puri, Delhi-91, driver of D-Van No. DL-1LJ-0087 then narrated the whole episode as to how these two persons stopped his vehicle, checked his documents, threatened to impound his vehicle and demanded Rs 200/- as bribe. A case under FIR No.04/14 u/s419/384/511/34 dated 01/01/14 P.S. Shakarpur has been registered and the accused have been arrested.

The good work and presence of mind shown by Constable Sohanvir No.3902/T and Shri Suresh, driver of the D-Van was not only appreciated by large number of public gathered on the spot but are also being rewarded by senior officers.

(Anil Shukla)

Addl. Commissioner of Police
Traffic : Delhi.

Const. Sohanvir
No.3902/T